VICTOR VALLEY TRANSIT AUTHORITY

AGENDA MATTER

Consider Two Letters of Opposition Regarding Considering Western Joshua Trees Threatened and the Planned Closure of the Barstow Veterans Home.

SUMMARY STATEMENT

This past week VVTA's Executive Director received information from Director Rowe regarding a possible statute that will require all western Joshua Trees to be considered a threatened species under the California Endangered Species Act.

The second letter of opposition is regarding the planned closure of the Barstow Veterans Home within the next two years.

RECOMMENDED ACTION

Follow the direction of the Board.
